FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 2, 1878.

TIED YOUNG AMERICA AT THE MABILLE.
—One of the visitors to the Mabile the other night was a dapper specimen of Young America who looked as though he might aspire at no distant day to be a freshman at Harvard. He was a downy cheeked young man, with just the faintest promise of a moustache on his upper lip. He was nattily dressed, carried a smart walking stick, and wore a bright pick in his button hole. He had evidently stolen out all unbeknown to his parents, for he came quietly in, and instead of rushing into the ring to see the can can, he strolled leisurely along the shaded walk, in the hope of being invited to take a seat by his side. But the young man was not to be thus inveigled. He allowed his head to fall on the back of the seat, and in a few moments was fast asleep, dreaming, perhaps, of Greek roots and integral calculus. It was not many minutes before a couple of eccentrics espied the sleeping beauty. They stole quietly up and took seats on either side of him. They kept up a lively chattering, but subdued their laughter so as not to disturb the sweet sleeper. One put another pick in his lapel, while the other quietly fanned him.

Pretty soon the eccentrics were joined by a third, and then came another and another, and still another, until the sleeper was surrounded by a score of frail beauties, all bent upon having some fun. "Le pauvre petit!" "Il dort comme un ange!" "Il est tres gentil!" were some of the expressions that were showered upon him. It was not until one of the eccentrics laughed aloud that the young man awoke to behold the lovely scene around him. He jumped to his feet and stood breathless, speechless and motionless for a full minute, then he made a break in the ring that encircled him, and made for a cab as fast as he could go.

ICE CREAM.

My Ice Cream Manufactory, one of the largest in Virginia, still continues to supply private customers, Sunday schools, excursions, picnics, fairs, festivals and associations, as well as the trade, with that SUPERIOR ICE CREAM that has made a name for this community, and is known everywhere as BENJAMIN'S ICE CREAM. I could easily reduce its price by lowering its quality, but good cream, of fresh, pure, wholesome ingredients, cannot be furnished at a less price than I serve it. Of course, I could "grade my cream by the price," but my cream would lose the good name that years of fair dealing have won for it. I ask that persons abroad ordering "Benjamin's Cream" from third parties will assure themselves that the cream sent is certainly from my establishment. I warrant my cream, and do not wish that inferior cream, sent out as mine, should injure its reputation. It is my aim to furnish the BEST ICE CREAM in America, and my customers are satisfied that I do so.

I feel under great obligations for the liberal patronage extended to me since I commenced business in this place, an entire stranger, and heartily return my most humble thanks for the many favors shown me. I have secured a low rent; 2d, I pay cash for my goods; 3d, buy the best of cream at a reduced price; 4th, do away with hiring hands; 5th, make the cream myself; 6th, am determined to give full satisfaction. Picnics and Sunday schools supplied (ten gallons and upwards) for 25 cts. per gallon. ICE CREAM and DINNERS ROOMS No. 179 King street.
